

SUMMER YOUTH TRACK 2021 BLUE HILL PENINSULA YOUTH TRACK CLUB

Summer development track program for young athletes: have fun learning track and field events and competing against other youth from around Maine.

WHO: any child from age 5-14 (including 15-year-olds who haven't entered ninth grade)
Participants can be resident of any town, not just Blue Hill

FIRST PRACTICE: Tuesday, June 22, 5:30pm – 6:30pm, Blue Hill Consolidated School
Practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays (5:30-6:30) at BHCS through the end of July

FIRST MEET: Thursday, July 1
Meets are held each Thursday through July 22 in Brewer or Old Town, from 2pm to 6pm. Families will need to provide their own transportation or rideshare. Some participate in the post-season: qualifying meet Thursday, July 29; state championship Saturday, August 7 (location TBD).

COACHING: David Stearns and Isaac Vaccaro, GSA track coaches, assisted by GSA student athletes

COST: $90 per participant; $80 for Blue Hill residents. Includes club costs, USATF membership and uniform T-shirt. Checks payable to Town of Blue Hill.

REGISTRATION: at the first practice or at the Blue Hill town office before the first practice. Athletes who plan to participate in meets will have to provide a copy of their birth certificate, unless they provided one in a previous year.

EVENTS: athletes will compete in four different age groups in the following events:

- running events: 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, 3000m
- shot put, turbo javelin (plastic dart), long jump, high jump
- race-walking, relays
- discus, triple jump, and hurdles for ages 11 and up

PARTICIPATION OPTIONS: Most athletes will participate in practices and meets throughout the entire season, given a family activity here and there. Some athletes choose to participate just in practices and not in meets. It is possible for to participate for only part of the season because of family trips. Ask!
